Find more Christian classics for theology and Bible study at Bible Study Tools. What is the difference between exegesis and hermeneutics ... An exegesis is an explanation or interpretation of a particular text, while hermeneutics is the study of the principles according to which interpretation and explanation of any text (the notion of a text has been greatly enlarged by philosophical hermeneutics) are governed or guided.

What is the difference between exegesis and hermeneutics? The distinction is not quite as simple as "theory vs. application," though, since hermeneutics is not just concerned with the philosophy of exegesis, and exegesis is not merely the application of hermeneutical theory -- even if we restrict our comparison to Biblical hermeneutics and Biblical exegesis. Here are a couple of examples to illustrate.
