What is a Philosophy of Nursing? - ECPI University What is a Philosophy of Nursing? A philosophy of nursing is a statement, sometimes written, that declares a nurse's beliefs, values, and ethics regarding their care and treatment of patients while they are in the nursing profession. Philosophy of Nursing | allnurses To develop an accurate philosophy of nursing, one must contemplate the qualities of the endeavors to which a nurse obligates their heart and soul to. A nurse commits to being the embodiment of altruism, charisma, empathy, and knowledge applied to the enterprise of protection, promotion, and enhancement of the holistic health states of all persons. How to Figure Out Your Personal Philosophy of Nursing ... Writing your personal philosophy of nursing is all about critical reflection. Exercises in critical reflection assist in "building theoretical understanding and promote confidence in learning" and in discussing nursing theories (Hernandez, 2009, p. 343, 347).

Florence Nightingale | Philosophy of Nursing Nightingale's philosophy of nursing practice still rings loud and clear today and will most likely continue to influence nursing and healthcare alike. It seems to me that she would want nothing more than for us to enhance and build on her theory, thereby honoring the nursing profession, and exceeding the mark of her philosophical legacy. No Idea with Philosophy of Nursing? Here're Some Examples ... A nursing philosophy is a key statement of a nurse or organization and their commitment to accountability, professionalism, and compassion for the ill. Along with an organization, individual nurses are accountable for their personal growth and knowledge. How A Personal Philosophy of Nursing Can Help Your Career Defining a personal philosophy of nursing is your way of uncovering what fuels your passion for this exciting profession. Understanding this "why" will help you become connected mentally and emotionally to your work. It is no secret that connection plays a significant role in nursing.

Personal Philosophy of Nursing Example Papers Excerpt from this Personal Philosophy of Nursing paper: I believe that the focus of nursing is in the best interest of the patient. Every patient is unique and patient care is adapted to fit each individual patient. Philosophy - Careful Nursing The philosophy is presented in the following four pages.
